Towards Human Milk Banking in South Australia

This seminar is an opportunity for interested health professionals and consumers to hear about recent state activities regarding human milk banking and to have your say about future directions.

Date: Tuesday 29th July 2014

Time: 5.45 - 7:30pm
Presentations commencing at 6pm

Venue: SAHMRI Auditorium
North Terrace, Adelaide
no parking on-site however paid public parking nearby

Cost: FREE

Register: Registration is essential - registration form and parking information attached

For further information please contact:
Renae Jordan, renae.jordan@adelaide.edu.au

SPEAKERS

Dr Carmel Collins
MS McLeod Research Fellow
Women’s & Children’s Health Research Institute
South Australia
A systematic review of the benefits of human milk for preterm infants

Dr Jacqueline Miller
Senior Lecturer
Nutrition and Dietetics, Flinders University
South Australia
The financial, health professional and consumer perspectives of milk banking in SA

Dr Gillian Opie
Neonatal Paediatrician IBCLC, FRACP
Mercy Health Breastmilk Bank
Melbourne, Victoria
Establishing a milk bank and beyond: the Mercy experience

ADDITIONAL PANEL MEMBERS

Prof Robert Gibson
Director
FOODplus Research Centre, University of Adelaide
South Australia

Ms Jo Slade
Parent of Preterm infant

Twilight Seminar for Health Professionals and Consumers

Presentations by three speakers, followed by a panel discussion

Chaired by

Dr Andrew McPhee
Statewide Director, Neonatal Services
Women’s & Children’s Health Network
South Australia

Welcome

Prof Maria Makrides
Healthy Mothers, Babies & Children Theme Leader,
South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute
Director, Women’s & Children’s Health Research Institute

Milk Bank Working Group
Andrew McPhee, Peter Marshall, Carmel Collins, Jacqueline Miller, Robert Gibson, Maria Makrides

Appreciation is expressed to Emma Tonkin and Gina Lin who have provided research support